

Adventure Canada Expedition Jackets

One of the highlights of an Adventure Canada trip is your very own expedition jacket. This jacket is a waterproof and windproof outer shell, with a hood and very light insulation. This is part of your expedition package, and is yours to take home at the end of the voyage. No refunds or discounts are available for anybody who chooses to opt out of the jacket.

You will have the opportunity to indicate your jacket size when completing your personal profile online. Please review the enclosed sizing chart, and select the best approximation of your size, including space for warm layers underneath. Jackets are not available to try on at our office.

To make sure you stay completely dry and warm during your expedition, all passengers are required to bring their own pair of waterproof pants, and encourage to pack layers which are easily adjusted to ensure your overall comfort and safety. For more tips on what to pack, please see the Suggested Packing List in your Adventurer Package.
