Greenland & Wild Labrador

SEPTEMBER 17–OCTOBER 1, 2023

The Top Ten Splendours of Greenland & Wild Labrador

Each Adventure Canada expedition holds its own unique highlights. Beautiful and welcoming Inuit culture, rich archaeological sites, jaw-dropping scenery, and aurora viewing opportunities leave us lost for words in this special region. Join this trip of a lifetime for a chance to witness these ten splendours on Greenland & Wild Labrador.

Hike to your heart's content in Torngat Mountains National Park

Every landing site in the Torngats is a fan favourite. At Eclipse Channel, marvel at the spectacular rushing water, vibrant tundra, and playful seals. In Saglek Fjord, explore Thule tent rings, meat caches, and graves; see (and hear legends about) the Giant's Footprints that gouge the fjord walls; and check out the bird life, including harlequin ducks and lesser black-backed gulls. At Kangidluasuk (St. John's Harbour), the base camp of Torngat Mountains National Park, meet Inuit rangers and join them on epic hikes across the alpine tundra.

2 Get dramatic at L'Anse aux Meadows, the only authenticated Norse site in North America

One thousand years ago, at the tip of Newfoundland's Great Northern Peninsula, Leif Erikson and his crew of Vikings became the first Europeans to visit North America. The settlement they established, L'Anse aux Meadows, was unearthed in 1960 and today is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Tour the intriguing interpretive centre and then visit the reconstructed Scandinavian-style sod buildings, where staff in period costume re-enact and explain what life here was like for those pioneering Norsemen.

3 Ogle stupendous peaks in Nachvak Fjord and abundant critters in Ramah Bay

There's nothing so stunning as steaming up Labrador's Nachvak Fjord, twenty kilometres into Torngat Mountains National Park. The tallest peak in eastern Canada is here, plus bears, Thule archaeological sites, berry patches, fox dens, and riotous autumnal colours. In placid Ramah Bay are the ruins of an old Moravian mission, plus geese, minke whales, a delightful waterfall, and a famous deposit of stone—the Ramah chert—that was so prized for tool-making that Indigenous peoples traded it as far away as the Great Lakes in Ontario.

4 Experience the west Greenland coast, where the Arctic is sublime

Sailing down the legendary Kangerlussuaq Fjord (Søndre Strømfjord) is a true polar pleasure. A whopping 190 kilometres long but just two kilometres wide, this intimate seaway is flanked by countless frosted peaks and glaciers. The rest of Greenland's west coast is no less majestic—think icebergs, jagged isles, and misty summits. Explore this glittering land and seascape by ship, Zodiac, or on shore. Make sure your camera has a spare memory card, because you might just fill it up!

5 Go wandering in welcoming Nain, the metropolis of Labrador's Inuit region

Nestled in tamarack forests between the Torngats and the brooding Labrador Sea, stunning Nain is the most northerly town in Labrador and the administrative capital of Nunatsiavut, the Labrador Inuit government region. Visit Illusuak, the impressive new cultural centre, as well as the beautiful Moravian Church. Expect a warm welcome, take the opportunity to peruse plenty of arts and handicrafts, and enjoy the rousing brass band music—an old tradition in northern Labrador.

6 Pay homage to poignant history at the abandoned village of Hebron

Eerie Hebron has a checkered history. For centuries it was a gathering place of Inuit, then in the 1830s it became a busy Moravian mission. In 1959, it was closed by government officials to compel residents to move to modern communities. The relocation broke up families and caused enduring trauma. Nowadays, Inuit are rehabilitating the settlement. Pay your respects and tour the teetering cabins, silent graveyard, archaeological sites, and the old mission, where the provincial government has posted a plaque apologizing for its role in the relocation.

7 Shop (and sup) 'til you drop in Greenland's cosmopolitan capital, Nuuk

Greenland's capital, Nuuk, bridges old and new. The charming harbour pays homage to colonial Denmark (note the 170-year-old Our Saviour's Church and the towering statue of missionary Hans Egede) as well as to modern Greenland (catch the seaside Inuit sculptures and the amazing national museum). Downtown are chic boutiques and coffeeshops, but also the distinctively Indigenous parliament house and a market where hunters sell sea mammal meat. Shop, eat, stroll the streets, and enjoy big-city living on the world's coolest island.

©Dennis Minty

8 Ride the waves of the history-haunted, iceberg-bedazzled, whale-spangled Labrador coast

From forbidding Killiniq Island in the far north to the (relatively) busy Strait of Belle Isle, Labrador's coast is wild and wonderful. History lives here: of generations of Inuit hunters, of Basque fishermen, of Norsemen seeking trade and timber, and of English mariners questing for the Northwest Passage. Also here are islands and skerries and golden beaches, icebergs twenty storeys tall, marine mammals—especially humpbacks, minke, and harp seals—and, come summer's end, the mysterious aurora, dancing madly in the sky.

9 Savour the colourful cityscape of St. John's, Newfoundland

Clinging to Canada's easternmost tip, Newfoundland's historic and vibrant capital, St. John's, is a city brimming with character, and it's worth planning to spend a few extra days here. Sailing through the famous Narrows, keep your eyes out for its photogenic attractions—including Signal Hill, the Basilica of St. John the Baptist, The Rooms (the city's cultural centre), and the bright houses of the Battery neighbourhood. Beyond, the wild North Atlantic takes over—be sure to watch for whales and seabirds!

10 Sail historic Davis Strait, a crossroads of whalers, Inuit, and explorers

For at least a millennium, this shivering sea has united Europe and Arctic North America. Inuit travel here, as did Vikings, Scottish whalers, explorers like Franklin and Amundsen, and more. On the outer decks, keep your eyes peeled for pilot and sperm whales, sea birds, and fantastical icebergs.

Itinerary

DAY 1: KANGERLUSSUAQ, GREENLAND

Kangerlussuaq is a former U.S. Air Force base and Greenland's primary flight hub. Here we will be transferred by Zodiac to the Ocean Endeavour.

With 190 kilometres of superb scenery, Kangerlussuaq Fjord (Søndre Strømfjord) is one of the longest fjords in the world. We begin our adventure by sailing down this dramatic fjord, crossing the Arctic Circle as we go, spending time on deck watching for aurora borealis.

DAY 2: KANGERLUSSUATSIQ FJORD

West Greenland's complex coastal waterways include glaciers, islands, and fjords against a towering mountain backdrop. The waters are relatively warm here, due to the West Greenland Current and the subarctic location. We'll explore this sublime landscape by ship and by Zodiac.

DAY 3: NUUK

Nuuk, the capital of Greenland, bridges old and new. The old harbour region of town includes many buildings dating from the Danish colonial days. Nuuk is known for great art, shopping, and cafes.

DAY 4: AT SEA—DAVIS STRAIT

Our onboard presentation series will continue as we steam across Davis Strait towards Canada. This is an excellent time to enjoy workshops, watch a documentary, and get out on deck looking for whales, seabirds, and other marine wildlife.

DAY 5-7: TORNGAT MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK, NL, CANADA

Some of Canada's highest peaks east of the Rockies are found in Torngat Mountains National Park. Here, Inuit of Nunatsiavut will be our guides in their spiritual homeland. Polar bears, black bears, caribou, falcons, and eagles are among the species we hope to spot. We'll also be on the lookout for marine mammals. We'll spend our time hiking, searching for wildlife, visiting archaeological sites, and Zodiac cruising.

DAY 8: HEBRON

This haunting site preserves a Moravian Mission station dating from the 1830s. The mission was abandoned in 1959, forcing the relocation of Inuit who resided there. In 2005, the government of Newfoundland & Labrador issued an apology to people affected by the relocations.

Former Hebron residents and their kin continue to visit the site, and to hunt and fish nearby.

©Dennis Minty

DAY 9: NAIN

The administrative capital of Nunatsiavut, Nain is the most northerly community in Labrador. We'll visit Illusuak, the stunning new cultural centre, and the beautiful Moravian Church among other community highlights.

We always enjoy a warm cultural welcome here. Expect music, food, and handicrafts at this dynamic visit.

DAY 10-12: THE LABRADOR COAST

Along the Labrador coast we find coastal barrens, high subarctic tundra, high boreal forest, mid-boreal forest, and string bog. The area is dotted with islands and we'll select a landing based on the conditions of the day.

DAY 13: L'ANSE AUX MEADOWS

L'Anse aux Meadows is the only authenticated Norse settlement in North America—a UNESCO World Heritage Site and National Historic Site. The archaeological remains found here in 1960 date to approximately 1000 CE.

Today, a superb interpretation centre and several reconstructed Norse-style sod buildings evoke the spirit of the Viking voyages.

DAY 14: EASTERN NEWFOUNDLAND

The east coast of Newfoundland is known for the dozens of picturesque villages that dot its rocky shores. We'll find harbour in one of these unique communities. We look forward to a characteristically warm Newfoundland welcome upon our arrival. Photographers will have their work cut out for them capturing the special charm of classic island communities and picturesque coastlines.

DAY 15: ST. JOHN'S, NL, CANADA

Sailing into the port of St. John's has to be experienced to be believed. Watch for locals waving from Signal Hill as we take on our pilot and enter the world-famous Narrows to North America's oldest city. The colourful houses of the Battery are always a hit with shutterbugs! Today we disembark the Ocean Endeavour. We will say our farewells and the expedition team will be on hand to assist you with luggage and transportation arrangements.

Multi-Trip Promotion
