

Ivanhoé Cambridge appoints Stanislas Henry Senior Vice President, Operations and Strategic Partnerships, Europe

Paris, France, and Montreal, Quebec, Canada, May 14, 2019 – Ivanhoé Cambridge announces today the appointment of Stanislas Henry as Senior Vice President, Operations and Strategic Partnerships, Europe. Reporting to Karim Habra, Head of Europe, Stanislas Henry will be responsible for managing and developing strategic partnerships for the Company.

“I am pleased to welcome Stanislas in our European team at an important time in our expansion on the continent,” commented Karim Habra, Head of Europe, Ivanhoé Cambridge. “This appointment reflects our ambition to grow our investments in Europe through strategic partnerships in several European countries. I am convinced that Stanislas will leverage his extensive international experience, particularly in Paris and London, to help us reach our future goals.”

About Stanislas Henry

Stanislas Henry began his career in 1987 at Groupe Paribas, based successively in Paris, London and New York. In 1997, he worked in GE Capital Europe’s merger and acquisitions team in London. He then joined GE Capital Real Estate in Paris, as Director of Equity Participations.

After working for the finance and operational treasury department at Assurances Générales de France in 2001, he joined Groupe Crédit Agricole’s CALYON Corporate and Investment Bank as Executive Director, Global Investment Banking for the real estate sector, a position he held until 2008. From 2008 to 2019, Stanislas Henry was one of the main contributors in the significant expansion of Amundi Immobilier, where he was responsible for all institutional real estate funds.

Stanislas Henry earned an MBA at INSEAD and holds a degree from Institut Supérieur de Gestion.
