Interior Design Color Trends 2026: Designers Predict This Year's Top Palettes

Author: Brooke Robinson / April 2, 2026

We asked designers one big question: What color palettes will clients gravitate toward in 2026? Their answers point to a year defined by grounded tones, rich layers and a few unexpected bursts of color along the way. Read on for the interior design color trends set to shape 2026.

2026 Interior Design Color Palettes, According To Designers

Au Naturel

"Terracotta and clay tones are gaining momentum in 2026. Rich terracotta shades pair beautifully with natural wood, woven textures, and creamy organic materials, and work especially well in cozy spaces like a den, library, or bathroom to add warmth and depth."
