I HAVE MANY IN THIS CITY WHO ARE MY PEOPLE

ACTS 18:1-17 // Jordan Coros
May 19, 2024

As I work for the kingdom, am I seeing God work in...

1. The people?
2. The challenges?
3. The successes?
4. The promises?
5. The unexpected?

GROUP STUDY QUESTIONS

1. In his sovereignty, God led Aquila and Priscilla to partner with Paul in numerous gospel expeditions.
  - Are you willing to go wherever God would lead you?
  - How are you currently involved in working for Jesus and sharing the gospel?
  - Who can you partner with to do more? Are you personally involved with any or some of our various gospel partners at Harvest?
2. God is always working.
  - How quick are we to disregard this when we see challenges come our way?
  - Do we struggle to submit ourselves to the challenges God allows, believing his will and plan are better and greater?
  - Does it comfort us to know that those who are reviled and persecuted for Christ are blessed by God? (Matthew 5:11)
3. Our strength in seasons of weakness must come from resting in the promises of God.
  - Which one of God's promises do you look back to and hold on to in times of discouragement?
  - Are we mindful to run to Jesus who alone can satisfy, but also understands our experience?
  - Shouldn't we be encouraged knowing that there are many others who, like us, remain on mission, serving and proclaiming our living God?
