As I face the reality of sin, I must recognize...

...I am guilty (Romans 3:10-18)

...I am condemned (Romans 5:12)

...I am helpless (Romans 3:20)

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. READ Romans 3:10-18.
 - How does acknowledging that you are a sinner change the way you view your need for God?
2. “No one is good.” Do you find it difficult to accept that every person deserves judgment from God being sinners? Why might this be hard to receive?
3. We’ve all been touched by death in some way. It’s a difficult thing to face or even talk about at times, but it is a reality and fact of life. How has your personal experience in this shaped the way you think about sin and life?
4. We are helpless on our own; we cannot do anything to fix our sin problem. Why do you think we try so hard to ‘fix ourselves’ instead of turning to Jesus, our only real hope?
