GROUP DISCUSSION

1. Why would remembering that we have been “bought with a price” move us to live with integrity?
2. The Word of God shapes us as Christians. What are some ways where you have seen it correct you, teach you, and strengthen you? And having experienced this personally, why do we still tend to neglect it?
3. Where do you see indifference creeping in your life towards God’s love for you and others? What does it look like to genuinely be moved to God’s love?
4. In what ways do you find yourself wanting Jesus’ help without fully yielding to his authority? What practical step of obedience might God be calling you to take right now?
5. The Pharisees had a big pride issue. So do we. Where do you struggle with pride the most? What are some steps you can take to walk in humility in those areas?
6. What sacrificial faithfulness is God calling you to? For the poor widow it was giving up two coins. What might it be for you so that your giving would not be only dutiful but primarily worshipful?
