Partnership Emphasis Month

Let It Be Known

Various Scriptures

1. Get out your phones, tablets, and laptops and go to www.harvestbible.ca/ministries/#ministry-partnerships and review the list of all of our partners, familiarizing yourselves with who they are, where they are located, and what they do.
2. Choose a few partners and write notes of encouragement to them, letting them know who you are and that you're praying for them as they serve Christ. These notes can be dropped off at the office for mailing.
3. Spend a bit of extra time in prayer for the partners you've now gotten to know a little better.
4. Look at the local partners like Envisage, the two food banks, and the Bayside Mission and plan as a group to volunteer to help one of these agencies (e.g. sort food at the Food Bank).

Seven priorities for partners in the gospel work...

1. See the need (John 4:31-38)

Acts 1:8

2. Pray without ceasing (Ephesians 6:18-19a)

Pray as if everything depends on God and work as if everything depends on you.

3. Prepare leaders (Ephesians 4:11-12)

4. Send out workers (Acts 13:1-3)

5. Support the mission (2 Corinthians 9:5-9)

The biblical principles of giving:

- (1) Regular;
- (2) Intentional;
- (3) Generous;
- (4) Sacrificial;
- (5) Proportionate to income;
- (6) Willing; and
- (7) Cheerfully given.

6. Proclaim the message (Ephesians 6:19-20)

7. Make disciples (Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 1:8; Revelation 5:9)

Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exists because worship doesn't. Worship is ultimate, not missions, because God is ultimate, not man. When this age is over, and the countless millions of the redeemed fall on their faces before the throne of God, missions will be no more. It is a temporary necessity. But worship abides forever.
