
By this all people will know that you are my disciples

John 13:34-35 // Patrice Charade
April 19, 2026

When I love like Jesus, I...

...walk in obedience to him 34a

...live from a new motive 34b

...reflect what is otherworldly 34c

...prove his transforming power 35

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How do Christ's authority and his redeeming love lead us to love one another, as he commands us to?
2. As followers of Jesus, Christ is our new motive for loving others. What are some of the old motives we sometimes fall back on when loving others, and how do they fall short of the way we are called to love?
3. Think of a moment when you experienced Christ's "otherworldly" love through his people. What would it look like for us, as a Life Group and as a church, to love in a way that clearly stands apart from the world?
4. Where is God currently calling you to grow in loving others? Where have you seen him work in your life, and where might you still be resisting him?