Stewart Alexander was 18 when he enlisted and his brother Charles, as a 15-year-old, filled with enthusiasm and a sense of duty like many, said he was 18 to enlist along with his brother Stewart. The photograph below of the two brothers, standing proudly side by side at the train station in their uniforms was taken in 1915. Charles would return to the family farm in Errington, but Stewart did not.

Stewart joined the Manitoba Regiment of the Canadian Infantry, a Scottish Regiment. He was designated an acting Lance Corporal, which meant he acted as second-in-command over other privates in his section. He embarked for England from Halifax on April 23, 1916. Arriving in Liverpool on May 5, he was then posted to Europe on June 18. He transferred to the 72nd Battalion of the Seaforth Highlanders and was then drafted back to the 16th Battalion. In September, he suffered a gunshot wound to his right hand. On October 9, he was reported missing and is presumed to have died on either October 8 or October 9. His name is inscribed on the Vimy Memorial.
