Shoulder Symposium
One day seminar with
Jeremy Lewis PhD FCSP
- Consultant Physiotherapist
- Professor of Musculoskeletal Research
- Independent Prescriber
- MSK Sonographer

November 29, 2018 Vancouver
9:00am to 4:30pm

Program

★ Introduction: Professor Karim Khan
★ What patients are saying- the highs and the lows!
People with shoulder problems will present their experiences and journey with shoulder pain
★ Words matter
The influence of language in clinical practice
★ Psychosocial factors and outcome
The impact of psychosocial factors and outcome in both the surgical & non-surgical management of people with shoulder pain
★ The ultrasound anatomy of the shoulder
A real-time presentation of the ultrasound anatomy of the shoulder
★ The role of imaging in the clinical examination
A critical review of the role of imaging for those with shoulder pain
★ The elephant in the room: The medicalisation of normality
A critical discussion of contemporary clinical practice
★ Frozen shoulder
A synthesis of best evidence based practice for the assessment and management of frozen shoulder and new research findings
★ Rotator cuff related shoulder pain
The (very) strong case for physiotherapy management
★ Discussion and Interaction
Throughout the day

Information:
rebecca.collett@hiphealth.ca

Programme subject to change.