

Financial Planning Week 2020

Terms and Conditions

By registering for Financial Planning Week events, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. All registrations must be paid by credit card to FP Canada through the online registration form process. Registration will be open until November 13, 2020. Any registrations and payments received after November 13, 2020 may not be accepted at the discretion of FP Canada.
2. Access to Financial Planning Week events is restricted to individuals who have registered. Only registered participants are eligible for applicable Continuing Education credits. Any additional participants at the virtual event associated to the same email address are subject to a full registration fee.
3. The registration fee is non-refundable. Registration for FP Canada's virtual events is non-transferrable. If you are unable to attend the Financial Planning Week events, you may arrange for one substitute delegate to attend all three Financial Planning Week events prior to November 13, 2020. Tickets apply to all three Financial Planning Week events and cannot be transferred for individual events. If you are unable to attend and do not make arrangements for a substitute delegate before November 13, 2020, your registration will be forfeited.
4. Although presenters and topics are confirmed at the time of publishing, circumstances beyond the control of FP Canada may necessitate substitutions, alterations, or cancellations of the presenters and/or topics. As such, FP Canada reserves the right to alter or modify the advertised presenters, topics or other event content if necessary. Any changes will be updated on financialplanningweek.ca as early as possible. FP Canada is not responsible for any loss or damages as a result of a substitution, alteration or cancellation of the Financial Planning Week events.
5. FP Canada shall assume no liability whatsoever if the Financial Planning Week events are cancelled, rescheduled or postponed due to a fortuitous event, Act of God, unforeseen occurrence or any other occurrence that renders performance of these events impracticable, illegal or impossible. For purposes of this clause, a fortuitous event shall include, but not be limited to: war, fire, labour strike, extreme weather or other emergency.
6. In case of cancellation or postponement, FP Canada reserves the right to either retain the entire registration fee and to use it for a future FP Canada event, or to reimburse the attendee after deducting costs already incurred for the organization of the Financial Planning Week events and which could not be recovered from third parties.
7. You consent that any written feedback you may submit may be included in future FP Canada marketing and promotional materials. You will not be identified by name without providing direct permission.
