

Miigwetch, Simon

Simon Brascoupé MA CAPA CFNHM

Simon Brascoupé, Anishinabeg/Haudenosaunee – Bear Clan, Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg First Nation, Maniwaki, Quebec. Brascoupé Vice President of Education and Training for AFOA Canada. Simon is an Adjunct Research Professor at Carleton University and an Adjunct Professor in the Department of Indigenous Studies at Trent University in Peterborough, Ontario. He has a B.A. and M.A. from State University of New York at Buffalo. He has a Certified Aboriginal Professional Administrator (CAPA) designation with AFOA Canada and a Certified First Nations Health Manager (CFNHM) with First Nations Health Managers Association. Previously Brascoupé was Chief Executive Officer, National Aboriginal Health Organization; Director, Primary Health Care Division, First Nations and Inuit Health Branch, Health Canada; and Director, Aboriginal Affairs Branch, Environment Canada. He has taught at Carleton University, Trent University, McGill University and Queen’s University. He has written and worked in the field of Indigenous studies and Indigenous health, and is on Trent University’s Ph.D. Indigenous Knowledge Council. Brascoupé sits as a member of Institute Advisory Board for the Canadian Institute for Health Research. He is also on the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada’s Research Sub-committee .

In 2013 he wrote, Literature Review of Indigenous Financial Literacy in Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United States, AFOA Canada. He also wrote the Aboriginal Retirement Planning handbook and course for AFOA Canada.