executive director's MESSAGE

The business community ensures our town thrives, we support each other through economic highs and lows and ensure that the voice of business is heard through your local Chamber.

Passion for our community is what drives the Bonnyville and District Chamber of Commerce to continue its efforts to support businesses no matter what challenges are put in our path.

It is no secret that the last couple of years have presented obstacles for businesses and for our Chamber, but we chose to face these head on by introducing new services and events, many of which we are excited to host in 2023.

The Bonnyville Chamber is here to bring you together, to use our collective power to create change and advocate for the best interest of the businesses in our area. We are stronger together and by being a member of our Chamber, you are entitled to exclusive member to member discounts. These discounts allow businesses to access other local products and services at a discounted rate and to support each other in their growth and success.

Bringing businesses together is one way we can collaborate and use our collective resources to help one another. While this is no replacement for the networking events we miss so much, it is one way we can promote each other, help each other and work together for our mutual success.

Please remember to utilize our FREE Member Marketplace Newsletter that is sent to membership every Thursday. By committing to be a part of our value-added guide we will ensure your business is also featured in this publication.

To add your business to the value-added guide, please email admin@bonnyvillechamber.com to be listed.

At the Bonnyville Chamber, we truly work for you, our members.

Sincerely,
Serina Parsons
Executive Director

frequently asked QUESTIONS

What Does The Chamber Do?

Our mission is “to stimulate and encourage local economic growth for our members through representation, support and promotion.” This mission statement directly impacts our focus and provides us with direction regarding our projects, services, events, and partnerships.

Our chamber of commerce focuses on three main pillars: support, promotion and advocacy. Support comes from the many connections, partnerships, and resources we have as a chamber of commerce. With an access to a wide variety of agencies and organizations who specialize in supporting new businesses development, entrepreneurs, and business growth and expansion, we are able to connect our members and the business community with the resources they need to support their journey to success.

For promotion, our chamber offers various opportunities for our members to promote themselves directly to other members, as well as to the community and district. We currently have promotional opportunities with our website (business directory and hot deals), m2m weekly, Facebook, value added booklet, sponsorship opportunities, and events. We always search for more ways to promote our members, so check with us regularly for new exciting initiatives.

The final pillar we focus on is advocacy and we work to ensure the voice of our membership, the business community and our Lakeland area is heard by all levels of government. Through advocacy, we work collaboratively with the Alberta and Canadian Chambers of Commerce to present policy to the provincial and federal government that supports and protects the success and growth of business. In addition, we provide letters of support or concern for issues that our community and businesses experience. If you would like to learn more about any of the three pillars, contact us today and we are happy to provide you with more information!

frequently asked QUESTIONS

Chamber 101

Many know chambers for their activities - ribbon cutting, annual golf tournaments, meetings, networking and fun events. But how can a chamber be more and why is a member's annual investment so important?

Problem Solving - Chambers are a resource for solving challenges and needs our members may have, as well as being a hub for discussion.

Economic Development - Chambers are an engine for economic development through work in business retention and expansion, helping solve workforce issues and helping members grow.

Advocacy - Chambers fight for the interests of their members at the local, provincial and even federal levels and provide forums for businesses to voice their concerns and ideas to elected officials.

Connection - Chambers connect companies via multiple platforms, including, but not limited to, networking events, social media and referrals.

Education - Whether it is policy events, candidate forums, business education series, information-packed weekly newsletters, business councils or other events throughout the year, chambers give members the information they need to succeed.¹
