

About the Trainer

Kelly Lee holds a BS in Zoology, a PhD in Ecology & Evolutionary Biology, and a Certificate in Counseling & Training (CTC) from Jean Donaldson's Academy for Dog Trainers. She is a member of the Pet Professionals' Guild Steering Committee and the chair of PPG's Shelter & Rescue Division.

Kelly has been training professionally for 6 years and has been involved in animal shelter work for 8 years. She is the Manager & Rescue & Behavior Coordinator for the Yolo County SPCA's office at Yolo County Animal Services, and also sees private training clients through her business Dogkind LLC. She has experience with behavior modification in group class settings, home settings, and animal shelters, and has worked extensively with dog owners and shelter volunteers.
